- Develop job design, analysis, position descriptions, and job advertisements using various social platforms
- Develop and maintain an active talent database within our industry
- Liaise and work closely with Managers to improve staff retention, engagement and workplace culture
- Use creative sourcing methods for hard-to-fill roles
- Maintain up to date employee records on e-platform
- Attend career and University fairs and open days, conferences and similar events to promote opportunities
- Be a brand ambassador and promote the culture and values of our company

About You:

- At least 5 years of recruitment experience, with connections within in the meat industry preferred but not essential
- In-depth knowledge of full-cycle recruiting
- Hands on experience with posting jobs on social media and job boards
- Able to work under pressure and meet tight deadlines
- Strong business etiquette and ability to adapt to change
- A sense of ownership and pride in your performance and its impact on the company's success
- Driven self-starter with the confidence to work autonomously and efficiently
- Team player
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- You must have the right to work in Australia

What We Offer:

- Competitive remuneration on offer and relocation assistance
- Opportunity for career progression within our global organisation
- On site canteen, staff discounts and parking
- We are passionate, support each other, challenge the status quo and adapt quickly
- We look after our people – we know that a happy and healthy team leads to a more productive work environment
